WEST VIRGINIA NEEDS DOCTORS FOR RURAL TOWNS

(By Associated Press.)
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., May 25.—A pressing demand for physicians who will live and practice in rural communities is the most important problem confronting West Virginia, according to the authorities of the school of medicine of the University of West Virginia here.

Summersville, the county seat of Nicholas county, does not have a doctor, and Clay county has only one to look after the people living in its 332 square miles. In some of the counties many people live from 15 to 20 miles from the nearest physician, and in some of the mountain counties it has been found almost impossible to get doctors to make visits into the country districts.

On the other hand, the cities of the state are very well supplied with medical men. Charleston, the capital, with a population of 39,508, having 102.

"It is not always true that the city or town doctor makes more money than the country doctor," says a statement by Hugh Simpson of the school of medicine. "Country people do not object to paying good fees for medical attention. They are usually glad to get it at any price."

Who can remember when young girls pestered their mothers to be allowed to lower their skirts?

The Democratic minority in congress appears to have inherited all the gravity of the old Democratic majority.

Oh, well, there's nothing to prevent women who object to the present "Mrs." from remaining spinsters.

AMUSEMENTS

"PASSION" AT THE BUTLER

THE LAST TIMES TODAY
"Passion," which was shown at the Butler yesterday, will be shown again today for the last times, so everyone will have an opportunity of seeing the greatest film spectacle of modern times.

"Passion" unfolds a thrilling story of the rise of a humble little French milliner to a position where she is able to dominate a king. She is a character replete with a strange mixture of virtues and faults, but, above all, she possesses irresistible wiles and smiles, such as easily ensnared men of the highest rank. But her great triumphs prove to be her great undoing in the end and the sequence of events through which she passes in her rise and fall combine to make one of the most appealing and most sensationally engrossing narratives the screen has yet seen. The critics, not only of the United States, but of the world at large, have heralded it as the greatest of all photodramatic achievements. The night show will start at 7 instead of 7:30, on account of the length of the picture.

WOMEN'S CLUB CONVENTION HAS LARGE PAGEANT

(By Associated Press.)

YOSEMITE, Cal., May 25.—Presentation of a pageant, "California, the Land of Dreams," was the only event on today's program of the twentieth annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs in session here.

The pageant, which was written to show the "questing spirit of womanhood," in California's growth, was based on Mrs. Gertrude Atherton's history of California. Mrs. Atherton wrote the historical part of the scenario for the production.

Each of the six districts of the federation came to the convention with sections or episodes of the pageant picture story ready to fit into the running narrative on the stage. Each section came intact, with its own director.

Frayne Williams, founder of the Literary theatre, Hampstead, London, England, was producer, dramatist and one of the actors engaged by the southern district for its section of the picture story. Williams came in the role of Father Junipero Serra.

Economy rides on U.S. Tires-

IF you could get together all the car owners you know, you'd probably find that their tire experiences had been much the same.

Most of them have taken their fling at "job lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." Soon or late, nearly all settled back on quality first as the one sound assurance of tire value.

As soon as a man forgets the cut-price tag, and comes to the dealer who concentrates on a full, completely sized stock of U. S. Tires—he learns what it means to get fresh, live tires—not once in a while but every time.

Not merely in the big cities, but in his own home town.

Not merely for the heavy car, but for the medium and light-weight car—a full selection of size, tread and type.

Your U. S. Tire dealer can give you this service because of the service he gets from his neighboring U. S. Factory Branch. There are 92 of these Branches. Each gets its share of U. S. Tires, so that the dealer is always supplied with fresh, live stock.

U. S. Tires sell as fast as they are made. There is no over production. No surplus piled up waiting for a "market."

Wherever you buy a U. S. Tire—you buy a tire of current production, as full of life and value as the day it left the makers.
